ST. LUCIA'S CAREFREE HOLIDAY RESORT

Those who want to forget their worries will love Coconut Bay Beach Resort & Spa

Vieux Fort, St. Lucia – November 14, 2006 – Worries are carried away with the Caribbean breeze on the short drive from Hewanorra International Airport to Coconut Bay Beach Resort & Spa on St. Lucia's southern coast. As guests arrive in the airy lobby to check-in, they are lulled into relaxation by the refreshing rum punch delivered by a smiling St. Lucian. Within moments, the stresses of daily life at home are distant memories.

No need to worry about the swimming pools being too crowded, as there are three to choose from, including an adults-only pool and area near the spa. Just beyond the lobby lies the free-form activities pool, where guests can enjoy pool volleyball and aerobics. Adjacent to that is an additional free-form pool, with beach-entry and a swim-up bar. The quiet adults-only area includes hammocks and cabana beds, making it the ideal location for soaking up the sun or dozing off under the swaying palms. The kids will never run out of options with the CocoLand children's program and the expansive water park, including the Coconut Cannon slide.

When it comes time to eat, there is no worrying about variety. If mom wants egg rolls and dad wants eggplant, the family can eat at the Asian-inspired Silk one evening and at the Italian a la carte Bellagio the next. For endless choices, the buffet-style Coconut Walk offers dining for breakfast, lunch and dinner several nights a week. To make eating even more convenient, Bites, the beach grill is open 24-hours a day serving everything from salads to burgers.

Guests can take further advantage of the carefree feeling at the resort by spending some time being pampered in the full-service Kai Mer spa. It is located oceanfront on the property and features ocean-view treatment rooms with private outdoor showers, a relaxation lounge, 12-head Swiss hydro showers, two steam rooms and two saunas. Coconut Bay's signature spa services include oceanfront massages, Coconilla – a combination treatment, and a "choose your own aloe" experience, where guests can pick from the on-site aloe garden. Additionally, the spa has a full service beauty salon providing a variety of hair and nail treatments.

Every guest at Coconut Bay Beach Resort & Spa can find just what they are looking for. Families can spend time together playing in the pools and water park or the kids can join in the fun at CocoLand while mom and dad relax. Adventure-seekers can ride ATVs, zipline through the rainforest on a canopy tour or hike the nearby Piton mountains. Couples can get married without a worry as the wedding coordinators take care of every detail. At the end of the day, everyone will be completely stress free.
